

CONTENTS

Vol. VIII (2012/3)

Contributors 9

EASTERN AFFAIRS. WORK WITH HISTORICAL MEMORY. BORDERLANDS

Zbigniew Szmyt, The History of Nation and Ethnicity in Mongolia	11
Ivan Peshkov, Social Crisis, Ethnic Distance and Memory along the Chinese—Soviet Border. The Chinese Russian Old-Settlers narratives about the “Chinese” Famine and Cultural Revolution in Inner Mongolia	29
Aleksandr Łopińska, The “Yellow Peril” Syndrome in Contemporary Russia	41
Dominik Mierzejewski, Reading Years of Humiliation. Sino-Russian Border and China’s National Identity	59
Viktor Innokentievich Dyatlov, The Blagoveshchensk Drowning—Story of How Phobias Become a Reality	71
Tatiana N. Sorokina, “The Blagoveshchensk Panic” of the Year 1900: the Version of the Authorities	91
Viktor Innokentievich Dyatlov, “The Blagoveshchensk Utopia”: Historical Memory and Historical Responsibility	115