

“SENSUS HISTORIAE” — NO. 2/2017 (VOL. XXVII)
CENTRAL EUROPE. MEMORY AND IDENTITY IN THE (RE)CONSTRUCTION
EDITED BY IZABELA SKÓRZYŃSKA AND MARTA COBEL-TOKARSKA

TABLE OF CONTENTS	6
Contributors	7
Preface — Izabela Skórzyńska, Marta Cobel-Tokarska	11
Izabela Bukalska, “Past-dependence” as Mentality Distinction of National Minority Members	15
Marcin Dębicki, The Return of the Etherealness Denied. On the Continuously Alive Idea of Central Europe at a Quarter of a Century Since its Latest Killing	23
Marta Cobel-Tokarska, Izabela Skórzyńska, Central Europe. Memory and Identity in the (Re)Construction?	41
Jacek Nowak, Cultural Memory and an Oblivion of Polish Jews	63
Monika Mazurek, Why Minorities Own History, which is the Dispute over the Versions of Events (for Example Kashubians)	77
Agnieszka Chwieduk, Many a Grave will Tell You the Truth... On Agency and Collectiva Memory on the Example of Romania	93
Claudia Florentina Dobre, Memorial Regimes and Memory Updates in Post-communist Romania	115
Justyna Budzińska, Memes of Marta Frej as Critical-Identity Project	131
Elżbieta Łukasiewicz, The Epistemic Justification of Testimony-Based Beliefs: between Knowledge and Faith	155